

We want to focus on you.

Our clinicians use Heidi, an AI note taker, to write their clinical notes. This means less time typing and more time focusing on you.

It's safe and secure and you can ask to see what Heidi writes. We think you'll love the difference Heidi makes to your care experience but if you'd prefer not to have Heidi in the room, just let your clinician know at the start of the session.